We speak IT!

The IT world, and especially the SAP world is our special area of expertise. We know our way around here. We have distinguished ourselves over 15 years through our broad knowledge of technical relationships, software packages and the realities of projects as well as everyday operation of IT systems. We translate RFIs, RFPs, offers, success stories, presentations, consultant profiles, websites, user instructions, software components, training documents, marketing content and much more. We work every day with the special mixes of words in target languages and with many English technical terms.

Reliable Partner

Our customers consider us partners and value our reliability. Many have been working with us for years. Our trademarks are fast turnaround, constant availability - even after normal office hours - and complete transparency in our order processing. Our customers appreciate our flexibility and our collaboration when working on complex projects with tight deadlines. Translation is typically only a portion of our customers' total project work for their clients. We work collaboratively, discretely, reliably and responsibly to achieve our customers' overall goals.

Fast Processing

Fast reaction times, professional communication via e-mail, Skype and other media, and adhering to time commitments - this is how we conduct everyday business. Each request is non-binding. We treat your data and documents with discretion: All our employees are bound by non-disclosure agreements.

Translations for IT and Business

Good translations require specific expertise in the relevant areas of knowledge. We focus on business and IT topics. Our employees have profound knowledge in the areas in which they translate.

Good translations require linguistic competence. We work exclusively with native speakers.

hohneck Translations combines profound knowledge and experience in engineering, business administration, law and IT combined with a high level of expertise in translation.
